

Privacy Policy for HUD Speed Limits

Last updated: June 15, 2026

Introduction

HUD Speed Limits ("the App") respects your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how information is handled when you use the App.

Information We Collect

HUD Speed Limits is designed to operate without collecting personal information. We do not require user accounts and do not collect information such as names, email addresses, phone numbers, or other personally identifiable information.

Location Data

The App accesses your device's current location solely to provide speed-related features, including current speed, altitude, and applicable speed limits.

Location data is processed on your device and is not stored by us.

Map and Speed Limit Data Requests

To provide speed limit information, the App downloads map and speed limit data from our servers based on the geographic area in which the device is currently located.

These requests contain only the information necessary to retrieve the relevant map tiles and speed limit data. We do not use this information to identify users, create user profiles, track individuals, or maintain a history of locations visited.

Server logs may temporarily contain technical information such as IP addresses and requested map tiles for security, maintenance, and operational purposes. This information is not used to identify individual users and is not sold or shared with third parties.

Subscriptions and Payments

The App offers optional subscriptions that are purchased through Apple's App Store.

All subscription purchases, billing, payment processing, and subscription management are handled by Apple. We do not receive or store your payment information.

For more information about how Apple handles personal data, please refer to Apple's privacy policies.

Third-Party Content

The App uses speed limit and map-related data derived from OpenStreetMap and other publicly available mapping sources where applicable.

Data Sharing

We do not sell, rent, or share personal information with third parties.

Analytics and Advertising

The App does not use advertising networks, behavioral tracking, user profiling, or third-party analytics services.

Children's Privacy

The App is not directed toward children under the age of 13 and does not knowingly collect personal information from children.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be reflected by updating the date at the top of this policy.
